WHO IS LYNN MOSS?

After growing up in the Mississippi Delta, Lynn attended Texas Tech University before becoming one of Brown & Root Construction Company's youngest managers at the age of 20, supervising a Data Processing / Payroll Department and overseeing a weekly payroll for up to 4500 employees, owning and operating a successful small business, raising two boys as a single mother, becoming a founding member and continuing to lead a prominent conservative organization in Memphis, volunteering her time to the Shelby County Election Commission as a poll worker and officer, serving on the Shelby County Election Commission Advisory Board, as a delegate to the 2016 Republican National Convention, and for three years as the 3rd Vice Chair of the Shelby County Republican Party, and running her own campaign for Memphis City Council in 2015.

Lynn is a natural leader who brings a record of 25+ years of business management to the table. Her versatility is evidenced in the range of fields in which she has worked. Her dedication to the community, as well as willingness to work with diverse groups of people, has been demonstrated by her extensive community organizing and networking efforts in the Memphis area.

Coupled with her proven skills, operational insight, and untiring dedication, Lynn's honesty and integrity make her an invaluable asset to any project, group, committee, or undertaking. Lynn Moss knows how to make great inroads with communities.
